Marcia Stevens Awarded SBA Certificate from the Southeastern Association of School Business Officials

Marcia Stevens, Chief Operations Officer of the Caroline County Public Schools, Bowling Green, VA has been awarded the School Business Administrator (SBA) Certificate from the Southeastern Association of School Business Officials (SASBO).

The SBA Certificate is awarded to members that exemplify a distinction in leadership at the national, regional and state levels of their profession. “Only a select few meet the qualifying areas of experience, education, professional involvement and professional development,” said Sandy Halliwell, SASBO Executive Director. “Marcia is clearly one of the few that has proven to be an outstanding leader throughout the Southeast.”

SASBO is a regional organization composed of over 4,000 members in the twelve southeastern states. The goal of SASBO is to provide networking, professional development, and relevant information to promote and advance personnel engaged in positions supporting education in areas of business and administrative services throughout the Southeast.
