Contracted employees are paid as follows in School Board policy DL:

All employees will be paid in twelve (12) installments depending on their contract and the payment plan available for that contract. Employees will be paid monthly on the last work day of the month for twelve month employees except the month of December, when employees will be paid on the last school day before Winter Break. Further, contracted employees shall receive one-twelfth of their annual salary in twelve equal installments. Employees on ten-month (10) contracts, employees on ten and a half month (10.5) contracts, and employees on eleven-month (11) contracts will receive their first installment in August and their last installment in July. Employees on twelve-month (12) contracts will receive their first installment in July and their last installment in June. If a person terminates employment prior to the completion of a contractual period, the employee's final pay shall be prorated on a per diem basis.
